

Energy Savings Plan

Incentives to manufacturers for energy-saving improvements.

Who is eligible: Customers involved in a manufacturing process.

- Preliminary meetings will identify projects eligible for the program.
- The program may also fund an energy review which provides details on potential energy savings.
- Incentives are paid based on the estimated energy savings.
- A report is submitted by the customer verifying the installation is complete.
- Verification of energy savings is required prior to payment.